

SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY SCHEDULE

September 2020 to May 2021

Selected Parables of Jesus (September 13, 20, 27, October 4, 11, 18, 25)

Jesus, the master Teacher, knew well how to touch the heart using examples from the human experience: farming a field, trading commodities, hiring day-laborers, investing money, watching birds, growing plants, tending sheep, raising children, and more. See the incredible depth behind stories so simple even a child could understand them!

Friendship Evangelism with Prof. Degner (November 1, 8, 15, 22)

Our relationships with family, neighbors, friends, and fellow employees are precious opportunities to give away the priceless gift of eternal life. Are we using them as well as we can? Let Prof. Sam Degner of Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary guide your understanding of how best to leverage these relationships as we make friends for eternity.

Gospel Gems from Isaiah (November 29, December 6, 13, 20, January 3, 10, 17, 24)

Isaiah the Prophet of God, sometimes called “the evangelist of the Old Testament,” was given extraordinary insights into the person and work of the coming Messiah seven hundred years before his arrival. New Testament writers quote him as proof that Jesus is the One God promised. We explore his understanding of the Servant of the Lord.

Gifted to Serve (February 7, 14, 21, 28)

This study of Romans 12, 1 Corinthians 12, and Ephesians 4 will especially consider how our local ministry has been specifically prepared by God with the spiritual gifts we need to build up the Body of Christ here at this place and at this unique time. Special application will be made as we approach this summer’s ministry effort. Come and appreciate how you are gifted to serve your Savior! Guests are always welcomed.

Revelation 12 - 22 (March 7, 14, 21 & 28, [NOT April 4] April 11, 25, May 2, 9, 16, 23)

Mysterious, visionary, and ultimately moving, the last book of the Bible gives Christians hope that the Lord of the church will rule and guide her to the end of time. After exploring the first half of Jesus’ apocalypse in autumn 2019, we will dig into the remaining chapters this spring.
